Dear Aleksandr Kolbeko:

Thank you for acknowledging the acceptance of your Paper # SPE-230370-MS, "Development Of A Methodology For Modeling The Processes Of Hydrate Precipitationin The Bottomhole Zone Of Wells And Assessing The Impact On Productivity" (Control #25CTC-P-598-SPE) for presentation as a Knowledge Sharing Electronic Poster (ePoster) at the 2025 SPE Annual Caspian Technical Conference to be held 25-27 November 2025 in JW Marriott Absheron, Baku, Azerbaijan.

An agreement to present a paper at this SPE conference carries an OBLIGATION to participate in the event. If you are unable to present, you must notify your session chair and SPE prior to the conference start date. Please include your SPE paper number in all correspondence.

Advise your company/organization and co-authors NOW that you have been accepted to begin the approval process for you to prepare, attend and present your paper.

The failure of conference authors to have at least one designated individual present the paper at the conference will result in the conference paper being permanently withdrawn from the SPE technical paper archive in OnePetro.

Your Paper Number: SPE-230370-MS

Details regarding the date and time of your ePoster presentation will be provided to you at a later date.

You may direct any questions regarding the program to Mac Mendoza, Event Manager (contact information below).

SPE's online Paper Management System requires electronic submission of manuscripts and forms. Manuscript deadline: Tuesday, 07 October 2025, 11:59 PM Central Time.

NEW - Optional Open Access Publication: Conference paper authors may elect to have their paper published open access under a Creative Commons (CC-BY) license. Open access papers are freely available to all readers, and authors retain copyright of their work. If you are interested in open access publication, you may choose to pay an article publication charge (APC) of 600.00 USD. SPE members receive a 100.00 USD discount on the APC (500.00 USD). Authors from low and lower-middle-income economies (Group A and B; based on Research4Life's classifications) will receive a 50% discount (300.00 USD). A link to the payment form is included below. Note: to publish open access, payment must be received before the FINAL manuscript deadline.
